

Joseph P. Murphy

U.S. Permanent Representative to the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and UN Human Settlements Programme (UN-HABITAT)

Term of Appointment: January 2010 - present

Joseph P. Murphy has been the U.S. Permanent Representative to the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and UN Human Settlements Programme (UN-HABITAT) since January of 2010. He is a career Foreign Service Officer with the Department of State. Before assuming his current position, Mr. Murphy opened the Regional Environmental Office for the Pacific within the U.S. Embassy in Suva, Fiji. He has also worked at the State Department in Washington D.C. and in various capacities overseas, including serving for two years as Chargé d’Affaires of the U.S. Embassy in Apia, Samoa.

Mr. Murphy is a graduate of New College of Florida and holds a Master’s in Public Affairs (MPA) from Princeton University’s Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs.